

A new beginning awaits you!

*Sometimes
A new beginning
Is what is needed*

And sometimes it's just the first step that opens up a new world of possibilities...

*Take a step
even if you don't have any clue on where to go Because it's time to enter the game
and enjoy the flow.*

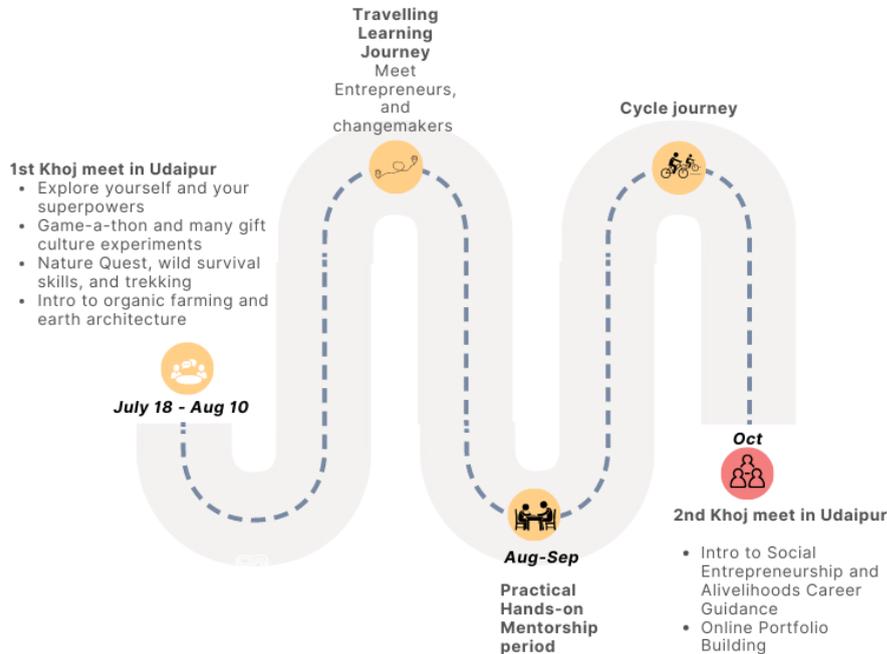

Exploration, journeys, discovery, and learning on your own have been a cornerstone of many ancient traditions. This also feeds and keeps the curiosity, wonder, and awe alive!

Calling in all the young people, from age 16 to 25, to join us for a 3-month intense course on the Basics of Self-Design Learning. Dive into this journey of designing your own learning and taking charge of your life.

This course will be useful for helping to orient free learners who are on a gap year, who are looking to transition from their current course, or who have left school. No previous degree or qualification is required to join.

Like many places across India and around the world, Swaraj University is experimenting with rethinking our lifestyle and our relationship with ourselves, our work, our resources, and our communities. We are questioning, challenging and experimenting with our set notions of money. So, we welcome you to join our experiment and explore your relationship with money.

By participating in such courses you are, in a non-monetary way, supporting and encouraging such learning spaces to thrive and stay alive. You are, in a beautiful way, taking forward the larger movement of reclaiming our learning.

However, it is important we all contribute and take care of the needs of the place and meet the actual expenses for hosting such a Course.

The suggested contribution for this course is ₹75,000/-. By contributing this amount (or more), you would also partly be helping those who find it hard to access these spaces due to financial constraints. Money should not be a barrier to your attending. Please ask for a partial scholarship if you need it.

Please feel free to forward this invite to your friends, family, networks that you are part of and people you feel would love to be part of such a workshop.
